In the aftermath of Hurricane Ike, thousands of Houstonians have found themselves displaced and without a home. SEARCH Homeless Services provides job placement services and long term housing to the homeless community. SEARCH lost over 2,300 lbs of food and sustained significant damage to its facilities due to Ike. Please help us in combating this growing problem by participating in the Houston SleepOut.

How can you make a difference? Houston SleepOut 2008

When: Saturday, November 15th, 7 pm- 7 am

Where: Sesquicentennial Park, Downtown Houston

What: Participants will SleepOut to raise awareness and funds for the homeless. Sleepers will enjoy a Faces of Homelessness program in which those who have experienced homelessness and overcome their obstacles first hand will tell their stories and perform. Participants will raise money through contributions from their friends, family and community.
